ARDING'S ROLE

resident In Same Position As Wilson

FREDERIC WILLIAM WILE
(Trans-Pacific News Service Exclusive To The China Press)

Washington, Feb. 26.—Pre- nt Harding's position with erence to the Four Power ty is reminiscent of the last s of the Wilson administra- n, when the former president fighting for a Senate endorse- nt of the League of Nations. Harding declared yesterday t he was opposed to any ervation to the new treaty ich would have the effect of talising it, but that he would agreeable to an "explanatory" ervation.

t appears now that a good ny Senators are apprehensive ut the pact, lest it turn out to an "entangling alliance" of e sort. At the same time the inistration leaders in the er house strongly object to a ervation which will require American government to mault Congress prior to any ference with signatory ers" in case of any emergency ing under the treaty.

The White House regards such eservation as undesirable and ecessary, and an infringement n the government's constitu- nal right to conduct the for- n relations of the nation.

Through Senator Brandegee, of necticut, the hitherto irrecon- ble members of the foreign tions committee today sub- ted a compromise reservation, this is not acceptable to ators Johnson and Borah, who nitely insist upon an unquali- reservation which will de- e the treaty of any sugges- of an entangling alliance

t seems likely now that a derately explanatory reserva- will eventually prevail, ough Democratic support for irreconciliables is now de- ely in sight. The treaty is cted to emerge from the ign Relations Committee next week.

Turkish Mission To Tour Europe

(Reuter's Service)

Constantinople, Feb. 26.—Fusuf Kemal Bey, the nationalist Foreign Minister, with the other members of the Mission to the Entente capitals, will leave tomorrow for Marseilles.

Yusuf Kemal has openly declared that the only government for Turkey is the Angora Government, and has succeeded, despite the opposition of the Cabinet, in obtaining a long secret audience with the Sultan.

It is not yet clear whether the Kemalists have succeeded in obtaining that which they covet, namely, the Imperial endorsement to their mission, which would enable them to speak in the name of the whole of Turkey.

Empress Of Japan Flits Into Port Long Enough To Make Somebody—Mistaken

Arrived Yesterday, Says Customs; She's In Hongkong, Avers Agent—Strike Outlook Gloomy; Sailors Issue Manifesto

In again, out again——

The Empress of Japan, jolly old Canadian Pacific liner that has been flitting about the China Seas disguised as a ghost-ship, is in again.

That's according to the Customs.

"We know nothing about it."

That's the official report on the vessel by Mr. Lees Smith of the Canadian Pacific local offices.

The Empress ship arrived in Shanghai at 1:45 p.m. to be exact, according to the official announcement posted by the omniscient Customs.

"The Empress is still in Hongkong."

That's the last word from the Canadian Pacific offices here.

"Twill be remembered that the Empress of Japan slipped in and out like a ghostly barque of old once before without the local offices knowing anything about it. They didn't know it in fact when it was pointed out to them at anchor. Strangely, everyone else knew it was in, and newspapers published the fact that it took 498 Chinese back to Hongkong to take the place of striking seamen. Still the Canadian Pacific knew nothing about it.

Mystery ship is right!

OUTLOOK GLOOMY

Prospects for an early adjustment of the labor trouble at Hongkong are darker than they have been according to reports received yesterday. While many coastal and other vessels are maintaining a crippled service in and out of Hongkong the body of striking workers are holding firmly to their demands following the breaking off of negotiations for the appointment of a board to arbitrate the dispute.

Shipping agencies have been more or less successful in manning vessels with workers from Shanghai, mostly Ningpo men, but the task of finding workers to replace the striking stevedores and load and unload ships at Hongkong piers has grown more and more difficult. Due to the murder recently of a member of a firm of stevedores many of the Chinese who have been working on the piers unloading vessels have been frightened away and these have not been replaced.

The Taksang, which arrived last week from Hongkong with the aid of the crew of Ningpo men who were sent down by the Ichang, sailed on Friday for Hongkong, taking with her 40 men from here, sufficient to man one of the Indo-China boats held up in that port. In future each Indo-China vessel leaving Shanghai will carry a complement of Ningpo seamen sufficient to release a boat held up in Hongkong.

The Empire State of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company arrives today from San Francisco and sails on Wednesday at noon for Hongkong. It will be remembered that she took on a crew of Ningpo men on her return trip last time to San Francisco. There is no news about the Nanking. She is still held up in Hongkong, and the agents here are awaiting instructions to despatch Ningpo strikebreakers.

SEAMEN'S MANIFESTO

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, Feb. 27.—The Canton branch of the Communist Association has issued a manifesto to the striking seamen which reads as follows:

"We have struck for our existence. All right-thinking and peaceful people who are not capitalists or members of the official oligarchy that backs them sympathise with us. We demand for everyone a life with meaning and an interest and will not be exploited by the minority like slaves or cattle. Therefore we have declared war on the capitalists and started a class warfare. This tremendous and heroic action of ours has brought us honor and will end in our victory. Capital under the present system of production has fattened securely on the blood of the toiling masses till it has become bloated and inert like a mosquito gorged with human blood. Therefore it has fenced itself round with the rampart of class distinction but has insensibly been digging its own grave. Throughout the world Labor is arising and recovering its rights. Nevermore will it be trampled to death by Capital. We seamen cannot fail in our just demands but we must not grow careless. The tools of Capital are many; its spies everywhere; its false propaganda skilfully pushed to lead us astray.

"The following four points must be carefully borne in mind:

(1). To hold out to the end:

Our latest conditions put to the shipowners represent the minimum compatible with modern society's requirements for the existence of an individual. We must on no account yield one inch to pressure or inducement. Be the mediators who they may, we must not give our consent till we get what we want.

(2). Union is strength:

Foreigners are apt to sneer at the spasmodic nature of Chinese effort and our inability to unite. The proverb says that many hands make light work. Labor's strong point, that which will give it victory in its warfare with capital, lies in superiority in numbers, but if you do not act

E. C. PEARCE AND E. F. MACKAY TO GREET THE PRINCE

Selected To Represent China Britons At Hongkong Reception

As the visit of the Prince of Wales to Hongkong approaches, local interest in the event is increasing. It is generally known that the Committee appointed in Hongkong to organise the arrangements incidental to the welcome which the Colony is looking forward to giving the Prince have invited British residents in China to appoint representatives to attend the function. As to how the invitation has been dealt with, there are, however, varying reports. The following is an official statement in regard to the matter.

On December 19 Sir Paul Chater and Sir William Rees-Davies, chairmen respectively of the General and Executive Committees in charge of the arrangements in Hongkong, addressed an invitation to the Chairman of the Municipal Council, the Chairman of the British Chamber of Commerce and the Chairman of the China Association, to appoint two gentlemen as representatives of the treaty ports to attend at Hongkong as the guests of the Colony and to present an address, the presentation of the address to follow immediately on the presentation of an address from the community of Hongkong.

The Municipal Council being an international body, felt themselves unable to participate in the nomination of the representatives and, accordingly, the nomination fell to the British Chamber of Commerce and the China Association. The former as the headquarters of the Associated British Chambers of Commerce, which together represent British commercial interests in most of the treaty ports, submitted the invitation to all the members of the Association, with the result that Mr. E. F. Mackay, Chairman of the Shanghai Chamber, and ex-officio Chairman of the Associated Chambers, is to go down to Hongkong as one of the representatives of the treaty ports.

The Shanghai branch of the China Association also referred the matter to its branches with the result that Mr. E. C. Pearce, Chairman of the Shanghai branch, has been nominated to go to Hongkong as the other representative of the treaty ports. Mr. Pearce is also representing the various national societies.

Mr. Pearce and Mr. Mackay will take with them to Hongkong an address of welcome from the Associated Chambers, the China Association, National Societies and the British Women's Association. The address, which is very brief and expresses appreciation of His Royal Highness's gracious interest in all that concerns the welfare and happiness of British subjects, will be presented in a form which is, at the present time, under discussion by a joint Committee of the British Chamber of Commerce and the China Association. The text of the address will be published in due course.

"Reactions" In China Stir Memories Of Old Times

By Elsie McCormick

Peking, Feb. 26.

Dear Mr. Editor: Maybe you'll be surprised to get this letter. I'm sort of surprised to be writing it. But yesterday a lady that lives at this hotel and says she writes for your paper told me she was fed up with her job, besides having an invitation to go tea-dancing. "Why don't you write something for me?" she says. "Your viewpoint is fresh." "You seem rather fresh yourself," I returned sarcasticlike, but she went right on talking.

"It's easy," she said. "All you have to do is write your reactions. I'll tell Ah Ling to bring my typewriter over to your room," and before I could tell her that I had't had a reaction for years, not since I got over quinsy, she went out through the lobby with some young stepper that works in a hong leaving me flat.

It was one of these trick typewriters that is carried in a case like a chiropodist't kit. I spent some time trying to figure out the keys, but bye and bye I got the hang of the thing. When I was matron at Police Station Number 2 in Jersey City I used to play sometimes with a typewriter owned by Desk Sergeant Cassidy. Besides, I kinda like newspaper people, because the reporters was a real blessing to me on those lonesome days when nobody would be in all afternoon except Ninety Day Marry and her in no condition to be sociable.

LISTENING FOR THE WAGON

It got so sometimes that I would find myself listening for the clang of the wagon and wishing that they would bring in a check-passer or some other educated lady, just so I could have a little society. Some of the shoplifters was nice, but I think on the whole that the lady forgers was most refined. The assaults and batteries weren't very good company, being temperamental, and the selfmade widows was always too busy getting their pictures took and telling the sobsisters from the newspapers about how the old man didn't have enough soul to understand them.

The nice-looking ones never stayed long enough to get acquainted anyway, because the jury always voted them "Not guilty," then hurried around so as to be at the courthouse entrance in time to hand the prisoner into a taxi cab and line up a few theater dates. Most of the ones not nice-looking were so sort of meek and mousy that they weren't much worth talking to. The man that marries a real meek woman because he wants to be sure of peace makes a terrible mistake. State prisons is just full of meek women that have put ground glass into the pancakes and things.

WHY SHE CAME

Well, this lady that sent me the typewriter said I was to write things about China, so I had better tell how I come to go. Coming out here was Light-Fingered Annie's idea. I was showing her a new tatting stitch and telling her about my Uncle Dan in Tipperary that had just left a lot of money, and how nice it would be to take a trip somewhere. Just a little while before I had shook three dress-patterns and a feather bore out of her afternoon costume, but there was no hard feelings between us, because she knew I had to follow my profession, just as she did hers, and there was no use in mixing up society and business.

"Why don't you go out to China, Mrs. Ryan?" she says. "Europe is so common."

I said yes, it was, and anyway I'd been there before, not feeling it necessary to add that I had left on the steerage when five years old. Light-Fingered Annie said she would miss me, as I always let her have the cell she liked best and that another matron might mix her up with the inebriates and other members of the hoi polloi. Annie is real refined and stylish and quite a comfort to talk to. I thought over what she said, and when the money was handed over to me I bought a ticket to China. Just before I left, the force gave me a party and a silver cup with crossed keys on it saying "Twenty years in the service," presented by the Chief of Police himself. It was a grand affair, though nobody could make out why I wanted to go to a country that was nothing but boiled rats and laundrymen.

Well, there's times when I wonder myself. This hotel aint the most sociable place in the world, and every time I hear a bell ring on one of them half-grown carriages outside, I stick my head out of the window sort of unconscious to see if the Black Maria aint coming. I never knew that me, the twenty-year widow of a martyred policeman, could miss Desk Sergeant Cassidy so much. He aint sent me but one picture postcard since I been here and that didn't say nothing except that Mrs. Tonia Delucci that shut her husband up in a trunk had just got fourteen years.

THE EMPRESS-DOWAGER

Well, anyway, while I admit that I aint made much of a splash in local society, I can say that I don't see many around here

'DISOBEDIENCE' TO BE DEFERRED ON GHANDI'S MOTION

All India Congress Passes Resolution After Debate

(Reuter's Service)

Delhi, Feb. 26.—The All-India Congress Committee, after an eight hours' discussion, passed Mr. Gandhi's resolution suspending mass civil disobedience, practically unaltered. It is understood that the resolution goes beyond Mr. Gandhi's personal views, and was drafted to meet the opinions generally held by Congress leaders.

The Pundit Malaviya's views, favoring the abandonment of civil disobedience and non-co-operation, found no supporters.

Delhi, Feb. 25.—The All-India Congress Committee met this evening. Mr. Gandhi introduced a resolution confirming the suspension of mass civil disobedience but sanctioning practically all other non-co-operation activities, including individual civil disobedience both defensive and aggressive and picketing. The discussion lasted till midnight and was adjourned.

Delhi, Feb. 26.—Martial law has been withdrawn at Malabar. A civil ordinance has been promulgated providing measures for the restoration and maintenance of law and order.

MEDIATION DEAL IS ON TO SETTLE EXCHANGE MIXUP

Shanghai's Chinese financial and commercial interests are standing by and are watching, more or less calmly, the developments of the position of the Shanghai Chartered Stock and Produce Exchange, which was reported to be shaky Saturday on account of the nervousness of certain brokers, who feared that their confreres were unable to meet their obligations on settlement days, which this month fell on last Saturday and yesterday.

Officers of the exchange stated yesterday to THE CHINA PRESS that the usual business of the exchange will be resumed today, although no quotations will be given in the price of the shares of the exchange itself. The date of delivery of the shares of the exchanges, whose price had jumped from a $50 par to over $200, will be postponed for the time being, pending negotiations between brokers on what is known as a "mediation deal."

The settlement of these shares is being effected by the brokers of the exchanges, who met in executive session yesterday afternoon, it was stated. The deliberations resulted in the issuance of the following statement by the chairman of the Exchange Brokers' Association and the chief of the Stock Shares Department of the association:

"The settlement of all the stock shares will be postponed to February 28. All other commodities such as cotton, cotton yarn, etc. having been duly settled, it is agreed by both parties, buyers and sellers, that the transactions in the shares of the said exchange will be settled at the said association in accordance with Article 70 of the constitutions and by-laws of the said exchange. It is understood that a compromise between buyers and sellers will soon be brought about."

The exchange is capitalised at $10,000,000, of which $5,000,000 is paid up. Two-thirds of the paid-up capital have been deposited with the Government as is required by the regulations governing the stock and produce exchanges. The exchange has the support of four banks and a number of other financial and commercial enterprises, officers of the exchange say. The amount involved is about $8,000,000.

CHINESE GUNMAN THIRD VICTIM OF STREET AFFRAY

Man Who Opened Pistol Battle On Mohawk Road Dies From His Wound

Wong Kung-tsi, the Chinese who started the pistol affray on Mohawk Road when accosted by a police search party on the night of February 22, died yesterday, the third victim of the affair. Of the four who were shot one, a Chinese mafoo, Chu Tsung-yoong died inside of an hour after the shooting, a Chinese woman, Zung Ching-ying, died the following day and a third, Zung Kwei-sing, is still under treatment at the Shantung Road hospital whither all the wounded were taken.

With the exception of the fugitive all the victims were innocent passers-by who were struck by flying bullets. After he was wounded Wong Kung-tsi was captured by Special Constable H. W. Gibson who rushed out from his home at 12 Weihaiwei Road when he heard the shots and joined in the pursuit.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE IN AGREEMENT ON GENOA

Premiers Reach Complete Understanding

SET FOR APRIL 10

French To Retain Right To "Inflict Sanctions"

(Reuter's Service)

Boulogne, Feb. 26.—The Lloyd George-Poincare meeting concluded last night. The two Premiers have reached a complete understanding regarding the conditions under which the Genoa Conference is to be held and its postponement to April 10, and also entire agreement on all the essentials of the Franco-British Pact, which will be ready for signature within a few days.

The question as to whether disarmament will be discussed at Genoa has not been mentioned. Both Premiers expressed the greatest satisfaction at the result of the talk.

Boulogne, Feb. 26.—An official communique states that M. Poincare and Mr. Lloyd George had a four-hour talk on certain problems particularly relating to Genoa and agreed that political guarantees were to be secured in order to prevent encroachments on the rights of the League of Nations and on post-war treaty and reparation rights. Experts of the different Powers will meet in London shortly.

The Premiers carried away the certainty that no political difficulties would stand in the way of the two nations' working together.

Paris, Feb. 26.—It is semi-officially stated that Mr. Lloyd George and M. Poincare have agreed that the Cannes resolution regarding abstention from aggression does not impair the right to inflict sanctions in case of the failure of Germany to fulfil the Treaty of Versailles and that the admission of the Soviet to the Genoa Conference will not entail complete recognition, which question has been reserved till the end of the Conference. The disarmament question will not be discussed at Genoa but the Eastern question will be settled without delay.

London, Feb. 26.—Mr. Lloyd George interviewed at Boulogne said: "We are in complete agreement on all points and a proper atmosphere has been created. The Entente is stronger than ever. France and Britain will work together for the reconstruction of Europe." He added that they certainly should not press for the recognition of the Soviet if the guarantees forthcoming at Genoa were unsatisfactory.

London, Feb. 27.—The French newspapers express undisguised satisfaction at the results of the Boulogne meeting. The accord attained has likewise evoked general approbation in Briton, though the anti-Liberal organs are inclined to be critical, the Daily News terming the result a diplomatic victory for M. Poincare.

The Daily Chronicle expresses the opinion that the prospect of future Anglo-French co-operation was left brighter than at any time since the adrupt collapse of the Cannes Conference. It reports that M. Poincare is making a less exacting demand regarding the proferred Anglo-French Pact, which he seems disposed to accept with the duration extended to 20 years.

Supply Bills Are Passed By House

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Washington, Feb. 25.—The House of Representatives today passed the appropriation bill carrying $18,500,000 for the Department of Commerce and $6,800,000 for the Labor Department, practically without an amendment.

Medal For Joffre Also For German

A Presidential Mandate on Saturday conferred the medal of First Class Striped Tiger on General Joffre. Another mandate under the same date awarded the first class medal of the Excellent Crop to the German Minister to Peking.

NEW ASSESSOR NAMED TO SIT IN EXCHANGE CASE

Two sensational developments occurred yesterday in the exchange case in the Mixed Court in whica Mr. J. V. Pereira, president and liquidator of the Continental Stock and Produce Exchange as well as vice-consul for Brazil, sued Sing Foh-san, treasurer and a director of the exchange, charging him with misappropriating $156,000 of the company's funds.

During the morning session before Italian Assessor Ferrajolo, sitting as an assessor for Brazilian interests, and Magistrate Tsang the complainant, after vainly attempting to secure a remand, withdrew the case. Three hours later the Italian Assessor was informed by the Consul from Brazil, Mr. Manoez, that his services were no longer required and that he would be replaced by Mr. Frank W. Hadley, the American attorney.

When approached by THE CHINA PRESS last night, Mr. Hadley confirmed his appointment, but denied any knowledge of the development in the exchange case. From other sources it was learned that the whole controversy will be re-opened in the Mixed Court before the new Brazilian Assessor. The Italian Assessor had been, up to yesterday, sitting for Brazilian interests, ever since Brazil was granted extraterritorial rights by Peking.

Yesterday's session began with an application by Mr. Pereira for a remand of four days on the ground that he needed more time to prepare his evidence. This was refused and the complainant asked that the hearing be postponed until the afternoon. The Court held that complainant must proceed with the action at once. Whereupon Mr. Pereira, to the astonishment of the defense, withdrew his case.

Following Mr. Pereira's withdrawal of the suit Mr. M. B. Brown, counsel for Sing Foh-san, asked the Court to censure Mr. Pereira for his conduct of the case.

"I ask the Court to express its disapproval on the manner in which Mr. Pereira brought and pressed this charge," Mr. Brown said. "Mr. Pereira knew he had no grounds for a criminal charge. This case has been brought to bring pressure on the officials of the exchange in winding up its affairs. The way Mr. Pereira has conducted this charge is little less than disgraceful."

Sensational charges had been made in previous hearings by Mr. Brown and the entire case has been permeated with heated verbiage from both sides. Mr. Brown first objected to the case being remanded for the Brazilian Assessor because of Mr. Pereira being both the president of the exchange and the vice-consul. Mr. Brown also asserted that Mr. Pereira although president of the exchange was "president in name only" and that his only interests were secured through services rendered the exchange in registration. The only other Brazilian stockholder, as required by Brazilian law, was Mr. Pereira's wife, he alleged.

Mr. Brown also pressed to have the case heard when it came up yesterday morning, objecting to Mr. Pereira's request for a remand for four days.

"We have gone into these charges carefully," Mr. Brown said, "and there is nothing to show that Sing Foh-san has done anything against the law. The money alleged to have been misappropriated has all been found in six banks and accounted for. Mr. Pereira's only object in asking for a remand now is because, as liquidator he is selling the exchange's furniture and he is anxious to get hold of the money."

Mr. Pereira objected to 'such cheap remarks' and asked that the case be postponed until afternoon then. Mr. Ferrajolo declared the suit must go on at once, and Mr. Pereira, outparried, withdrew the suit.

Would-Be Suicide Now Out Of Danger

Mr. G. Rowe, an employe of the Mutual Telephone Company, who attempted to commit suicide by slashing his right wrist with a razor blade is under treatment at the Shanghai General Hospital and will recover. The police received information in connection with the case Saturday night and when they went to Rowe's home at No. 3 Thorburn Road they found him bleeding profusely. First aid was given by a physician who was called hastily and Rowe then was taken to hospital. According to reports of the police Rowe tried to kill himself while despondent over a love affair.

that appeal to me. There is just one party I'd really like to know in China, and that's the old girl they called the Empress-Dowager. I don't know what her maiden name was, but judging from all I picked up here and there, it must have been Murphy or something. They say that she passed away sometime ago, which is too bad, because I certainly would like to of met her. Even guides can't keep back all the information, so I have managed to find out few things about her while going to the Winter Palace and around.

It seems she was a sort of combination of mavoress and lady king. Every day she met her ministers, which is suprising as her actions don't sound religious, and the heads of her city departments. They used to try to put her off by bumping their heads on the floor and telling her that she had eye-brows like moths' antennae, but it never held her up for long.

"Henessey," she would say to the head of the Department of Public Works, "what became of that money you was going to use to put in a sewer on Hatamen street?" Henessey would hem and haw for a few minutes, but next time he tried to clear his throat, he would find out that it didn't work because his head had come off.

Then she would turn over a few files and give a hard look at the clerk that ran the license Department in the City Hall. "McKenna," she would say, "I see you have been holding out on the dog-licenses again." Before he had a chance to be heard from, his friends were calling up the Knights of Columbus and giving in the names of the honorary pall-bearers.

A GREAT SYSTEM

Yes, the old lady had a great system. But she didn't give all her time to these homicidal arts of government. Not by a lot. She had several theaters built around her bungalow, and every now and then she would produce a play that she had wrote. She always invited the critics, too. But if she sprung an old line like, "Rags is royal raiment if worn for Virtue's sake" and Wolcott of the Times or this here Mencken of Smart Set started to write down something sarcastic, she would give them a mean look and they'd rub it right out again. The next day the Court Gazette always said that the words of the play was more beautiful than the singing of jade birdies in ivory treetops. And you can bet that the audience always clapped blisters on to its hands, too.

Then she was a great person for comfort. She was always building little houses so she could drink her beer down on the edge of the water. Once the Minister of Finance or the Tax-Collector or somebody loosened up on some money for a new battleship. But did the old girl build it? She did not. She ordered the Board of Public Works to make her a nice marble boat where she could watch the goldfish turn flipflops in the lake. And the Grand Jury didn't get out any indictment, either, because they knew if they did, it would be only a few days before their families would be signing a coroner's certificate saying that it was an unavoidable accident. When winter froze up the lakes and the goldfish, she used to order soldiers to come out and entertain her by skating. Well, you know what kind of skating ladies of her tastes would find most enjoyable. It was really a combination skating and setting down exercise. If the soldier didn't land hard at least three times in an afternoon, he had his pay and queue docked.

Well, the lady that works for you just come in to say that she had a grand time tea-dancing and was the story finished. I told her something was finished, but I didn't know whether it was a story or not. I'm going out now because I seen something in the paper about a lecture on 'Cells' at Mr. Rockefeller's place, and I think I'll go because it might remind me of home.

Yours most respectful, Annie Ryan.

P.S.—The lady didn't say how you pay for this, but if it's by the word, please scratch out the hyphens.

Ricsha Boy's Suit Again Up In Court

Mr. Joseph G. Warren, against whom a judgment was recently given in the British Supreme Court in a suit filed against him by a ricsha boy, appeared in court yesterday on a judgment summons. The judgment given was on the coolie's claim for unpaid wages and yesterday Mr. Warren asserted that after engaging the boy at a wage of $20 a month the coolie proved unsatisfactory, as he failed to appear for service when the weather was bad and had served in fact but ten days Mr. Warren said he had given the boy $5 on an occasion and had offered an additional $5. The Court held the case could not be re-opened, but reduced the amount of judgment to $20.

There are several thousands of us in Canton. We are deeply grateful for the help and kindness shown us by our sympathisers but we must remember that our enemy's spies are skilled in misrepresentation. Masquerading as seamen, they deliberately do all sorts of discreditable things with the object of weakening our cohesion. It behoves us to take the utmost care in our most trivial actions; otherwise, we may give cause to sneer at the lowness of our standard. We must constantly reflect whether anything in our conduct may give rise to unfavorable comment. We know that Capital is drawing the last breath. But we must also remember the convulsive flare of the expiring lantern and redouble our efforts and be on our guard against some great blow of such a convulsive nature.

"Our Association regards the seamen as the first line flung forward in th war of classes that has begun and it is our duty to reinforce you with all our might.

"Rally! Rally! Fight with your eye on our banner and we shall look forward to your glorious victory!"

Hongkong, Feb. 26.—Through the British Consul-General at Canton, General Chen Chiung-ming, the Civil Governor of Canton, has intimated to the Hongkong Government that he is confident of progress towards a settlement if the shipowners would make a wages offer additional to what they have already tendered to the Union. General Chen Chiung-ming suggests that a two percent increase of the former scale would lead to a more hopeful outlook.

The shipowners have agreed to offer a further increase of two and a half percent.

Protecting the Family

THE primary purpose of life insurance is the protection of the family. In the majority of cases the family depends largely or entirely for its subsistence upon the earnings of the family head. In surprisingly few cases, however, does his foresight adequately protect them against the uncertainty of the future.

LIFE insurance affords the only immediate and direct protection at an investment within the reach of even the most modest incomes. Failure by the family head thus to insure invites the payment of a heavy forfeit by those dearest to him.

The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed. Sold Everywhere

STROKESIDE AND BEARCATS FINISH SCHEDULE TIED FOR LEAD OF FOREIGN LEAGUE

Public School Beat Bowside; Tie American School For Fourth Place; Last Game Of Season On Tonight

The Strokeside cinched their tie with the Bearcats for first position in the Foreign Basketball League last night by winning their last game of the schedule over the American School. The score was 56-14. The Bearcats took a forfeit from Andersen Meyer and fulfilled its schedule even up with the Rowing Club five, at 17 wins and one loss each.

The Strokeside's win over the school and the tie-finish of the season's play requires a play-off for the honor of leading the league. No plans have been made for the post season match as yet, though it is expected that the next few days will find a three—or five—game series arranged for to be played within the week.

Coulcher and Johnson played the forward line for the winning Strokesiders last night. With excellent support from the Nash boys at the far end, and with Neprud passing and shooting in big league style baskets came easily. Coulcher scored six, Johnson and Neprud five each and E. Nash one. For the School Squires and Chase showed to best advantage. The former basketted four goals.

The third game of the schedule was an easy win for the Public School over the Bowside. The score was 46-20. At half time the School was up 22-16. Levis, Johannson and Remedios were too much for the Bowside men. They divided the scoring between them. Hale and Gattrell worked hard for their side, but with the School forwards and center running loose they were unable to stem the tide.

Last night's play finished out the season's schedule for the Bearcats, the Strokeside, the two schools and Andersen, Meyer. The only change of interest in the standings was the tying for fourth position by the Public School, with their rival, the American School. The Public School boys' win and the tie, however was anticipated by dopesters, who had figured out the finish beforehand.

Tonight's sole game between the Y.M.C.A. and the American Trading Company at the "Y" marks the closing of the season, unless the Bowside should play off a match with Fearon Daniel postponed since Dec. 9.

Last night's summaries follow:

Strokeside 35.—Coulcher lf, Johnson rf, Neprud c, E. Nash lg, H. Nash rg.

Am'n School 14.—Squires lf, Parker rf, Chase c, Wiens lg, Waters rg.

Goals from floor.—Coulcher 6, Johnson 5, Neprud 5, E. Nash 1, Squires 4, Parker 1, Chase 1, Wiens 1. Goals from fouls—Neprud 1. Referees—Mr. Day, Mr. Squires.

Goals from floor.—Levis 7, Johannson 7. Remedios 8, Caccia 1, Bell 1, Hale 5, Gattrell 4. Referee—Mr. Nelson.

BAER SAYS "BUGS"

GINK WINS ON A FAIR BLOW

Establishes A New Roughtown Record, But Admits It Was An Accident

BY "BUGS" BAER

Dear Slur—

What's big idea of boosting that big beezark, Gink Fowler, as if he was some rare piece of pugilistic vegetation?

Why don't you say something about the shower of fists between that heel, Gink, and my man, "Feet" Furst?

He was called "Feet" Furst because that was the way he was carried out of his fights. Well, "Feet" knocked Fowler colder than an iceberg's brother and placed him with the paper doll cutter's of America.

You ought to let O'Sullivan manage Gink, because O'Sully is the only man who made anything out of a heel.

Hoping to have the pleasure of never meeting you, I remain,

BUSTER DEE,
Brooklyn.

Ha! ha! That's one for the looseleaf ledger. This vulture, "Feet" Furst, busted into Roughtown surrounded by an admiring fog. Before the fog blew loose he hid himself in a telephone booth and challenged the world.

He started to nickel Roughtown to death, and an indignation meeting was called to take place the first Tuesday after the first Monday the Mayor came home sober. The Mayor juggled the beans by declining the nomination and staggered over to the radicals. "Feet" called up the Home for Incurable Pinochle Players and announced his intentions of bulldozing the suburbs.

The Glutt trained by shadow boxing. He had the most vicious, untamed shadow in the world. It would follow The Glutt around for miles, snapping at his boots. The only way The Glutt could lose it would be to pop into a cellar. But Gus Shadow would be waiting for him when he came out.

The night of the fight Gink's substitute was ill and "Feet's" substitute didn't show up. Therefore the fight had to be called off, although Gink and "Feet" were both here.

This pleased the patrons so much that they took the building home with them. Then they rushed the box office to get their money back. But the grand jury found out that everybody had horned in on a raincheck.

This puzzled the judge, because there hadn't been any rain in Roughtown since 1843.

The only umbrella in town was on a statue of Cassie Chadwick. This puzzled the jury so much more that they ordered ginger ale by mistake.

Gink was declared champion again without a blow being given either in hate or in anger.

Once again Roughtown had demonstrated that sphaghetti is an elusive dish.

He soon became known as the Telephone Champ, win, lose or draw. A determined effort was made to match "Feet" and Gink for the championship of something, but nobody could think of what was at stake. Finally The Glutt offered to fight for no reason at all.

No reason at all was enough reason in Roughtown, which paid double in spades. The Glutt went into active training.

SOOCHOW FIVES WIN AND LOSE TO NANKING TEAMS

Soochow American basketball teams, one the five which made such a strong showing against Shanghai teams here a few weeks ago, and the other a team of girls broke even on a visit to Nanking on Saturday. The men won over the Nanking Language school quintet, 32-12, but the girls lost 17-20.

The Soochow girls have developed rapidly and showed skill in team work, but were defeated. Miss Allen, of the Nanking team, did excellent playing as forward. At the end of the first half Nanking was leading by the score of twelve to six; the second half was closer, the final count being 20 to 17 in favor of Nanking.

In the second contest the order was reversed. The Soochow team nearly trippled the score of their opponents, coming out on the long end 32 to 12. The outstanding feature of the game was the teamwork of Soochow. At the end of first half the score was Soochow 16, Nanking 9. In the second half Nanking was able to score only 3 points, while Soochow added 16.

The lineup follow:

Soochow 32		Nanking 12

ENGLAND DRAWS WITH FRANCE AT RUGBY, 11 TO 11

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 25.—The Rugby match between England and France at Twickenham was played today in glorious weather, before 25,000 spectators, including His Majesty, the King.

The race was terrific throughout and most of the hard work devolved on the forwards. In the early part of the game, the Army player, Day, kicked two fine penalty goals. At the interval, the score stood as follows:

England 6 points
France 0

On the resumption of play, France equalised within a few minutes, Got and Lasserre both scoring tries. The English pack then made a heavy onslaught and was nearly successful. Then Crabos scored a try for France, which Ramis converted.

Two minutes later, Voyce scored a try for England, Day converting it. Towards the end the game developed into a wild fray, both sides making frantic efforts, but no further score was obtained. And the game ended at 11 all.

CHINESE KILLED IN MORNING FIRE ON FOOCHOW RD.

A Chinese was killed and considerable damage was done by fire and water as a result of an outbreak which occurred early yesterday morning in a large tea shop, the Sung Bing Lou, at 151-165 Foochow Road.

The man killed was a resident of the upper premises at No. 158 Foochow Road and death resulted from injuries received when he slipped and fell in making his escape from the building.

The fire proved a difficult one for the fire department to handle, since there was no fire break from end to end of the premises and the usual excessive amount of lath and woodwork along the upper part of such establishments allowed the blaze to spread with terrific speed. A remarkably efficient check was made, nevertheless, after a half-hour's strenuous work. The tea shop was generally damaged around the center and toward the East side of the building and a brass ornament shop at the main entrance of the place was badly damaged, as was also the entrance way itself. The shops beneath the tea shop, mainly book and paper shops, were somewhat affected by water, but this damage was remarkably slight thanks to the work of a section of the brigade, which spread sheets over the more valuable portions of the stocks.

NINGPO ROAD FIRE

The Foochow Road fire was reported at 5 a.m. and the last Central division machine had just returned to the station, at 6:48 a.m., when they were called out to Ningpo Road, where flames were found issuing from a hong at No. 894 Loong Chin Lee, a silk store. The outbreak was exceedingly difficult to reach, the entrance to the alleyway being through the gateway of a building under construction, and the blaze itself proved of stubborn nature. The premises burnt were insured for Tls. 28,000 and official surprise was expressed that such a small place should be so valuable, since to all appearances it was similar to a small Chinese dwelling on an ordinary alleyway.

REST FOR MOTHERS.

How many babies wake up just about the mother's bed-time and keep her busy for a good part of the night. The mother may not see anything apparently the matter with the child, but she may depend upon it that when baby is cross and sleepless there is something wrong, and the little one is taking the only means he has of telling it.

Under such circumstances Baby's Own Tablets are just the friend needed. They contain no opiates, but send baby to sleep simply because they remove the cause of his sleeplessness and make him feel well and comfortable. They are recommended for teething troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, colic, fever, indigestion and worms; they promote appetite and regular development.

Chinese Sentenced For Assaulting Sikh

Sentences of six months' and one month's imprisonment were served in the Mixed Court yesterday on two Chinese farmers who were members of a gang which set upon a Sikh policeman and took away his revolver following a gambling raid in Jessfield a week ago.

The raid was conducted in Chinese territory and resulted in a pitched battle between the gamblers and the Chinese police. Hearing shots and seeing the disturbance, the Sikh thought that an armed robbery was in progress and when he dashed up was assaulted by the mob, which was armed with hoes, rakes and other farming implements. The two accused were later arrested in the Settlement by Detective Sergeant Henry and the stolen revolver was recovered.

POLICE DOUBT 'CONFESSION' IN TAYLOR MURDER

Fields, Held in Detroit, Confirmed Drug User, Charge

(China Press Service)

Detroit, Feb. 26. — Harry M. Fields under arrest here in connection with the Taylor murder in Los Angeles, told the police that two men and a woman had plotted Taylor's death. He said he had taken them to the studio in a taxi. After the murder, he drove them to an opium joint. Fields said that he had received $900 for his services and left Los Angeles immediately. He did not know of any motive for the slaying of Taylor.

The police say that Fields admitted he was a confirmed drug user, which, they said, cast some doubt on the truth of his statements.

Fields told the authorities he would clear up the crime if he were promised immunity.

He is waiting a sentence here for forgery and said that while he expected to serve time for the Taylor murder he did not want to hang.

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Los Angeles, Feb. 23.—The Sheriff has announced that a Chinese named Wong Li left Los Angeles two days ago. This was the name of the Chinese given to the Detroit police by Mr. Harry M. Fields as one of the three persons concerned in the death of Mr. Taylor.

Police officers state that they know nothing indicating that the Chinese was one of the slayers but they believe that his departure was simultaneous with the first despatches from Detroit concerning Fields who had made a confession concerning the selling of narcotics.

They say that Fields told the police that the two other slayers of Mr. Taylor were Jennie Moore and Johnnie Clarke. Fields said that these three persons had plotted to kill Taylor because he interfered with drug selling.

MARCH PROGRAM FOR SAILORS IS ARRANGED BY 'Y'

The program of entertainment and social activity to be carried out at the Navy Y.M.C.A. during the month of March has been decided upon by the Ladies' Central Committee of the "Y." The committee is composed of the following ladies: Mrs. John Nichols, representing the American Woman's Club; Miss Frances Taylor, representing the Community Church; Miss Dorothy Owens, representing the Woman's Overseas League; Miss Hilda Murray, the "Minute Girls," and Miss Mildred Crane, of the committee for special entertainment. The program is as follows:

March 4.—Social Evening with games and music conducted by Miss Crane.

March 6.—Concert under the management of Mr. W. A. Sims.

March 11.—Sukiyaki party prepared by the "Minute Girls."

March 17.—St. Patrick's Dance under the auspices of the American Woman's Club.

March 18.—Evening of moving pictures at the Navy "Y."

March 25.—"Candy pull" given by the Woman's Overseas League.

April 1.—An entertainment arranged by the Community Church.

The Ladies' Central Committee, composed of chairmen of Navy "Y" work committees representing the different American women's organisations, meets each month and plan entertainments for the sailors.

The "Minute Girls" is not an organised club. They are American young ladies who have assisted the Navy "Y" in the entertainment of sailors and can be depended upon to respond to a call for social help on a "minute's" notice. The entertainments of the past three months, under the supervision of the Ladies' Central Committee, were most successful and the program for the coming month promises well.

Meanwhile, the Official Receiver has stated that it appears that the Company's difficulties were caused by highly speculative dealings entered into by the Company largely by the act and under the direction of Mr. Bevan, adding that the balance sheet issued in February, 1921, did not disclose the true position of affairs.

SCHOOL HERE CLOSED

The Ellis Kadoorie School was closed yesterday as a mark of respect to its late founder, Sir Ellis Kadoorie who died last Thursday in Hongkong.

The school was the outcome of a promise made to the Shanghai Municipal Council by (then) Mr. Kadoorie in the year 1907, of subscriptions aggregating Tls. 25,000 towards the cost of the building. It was not until 1910 that the scheme was accepted by the council and the necessary land purchased. The school was formally opened on Nov. 25 1912, by the Rev. A. J. Walker, Chairman of the Chinese Education Committee.

The boys assembled as usual yesterday and after a short address suitable to the occasion they were paraded in the compound where they removed their school caps while the flag was put at half mast. They then quietly dispersed.

NOTICE

The registration of abbreviated addresses is a common practice in vogue in almost all the countries in the world. It affords facilities to the telegraphing public as well as to the telegraph service which otherwise would run the risk of misdelivering messages. There may be persons of one and the same name, in which case misdelivery of telegrams bearing that particular name only cannot be avoided and it is unjustifiable to hold the local telegraph office responsible for that.

In recent days we receive many complaints from the public for misdelivery of telegrams. According to the result of our investigations, they are chiefly caused by the insufficiency of addresses.

The receivers of telegrams who have abbreviated telegraphic addresses are hereby requested to register such addresses at the local telegraph offices.

Registration the address of which consists of two names only (personal name of addressee and name of telegraph office) may not be delivered unless the address has been duly registered with the receiving telegraph office.

Before publishing the above notice in this column we have already posted it at the entrance of the local telegraph offices for the information of the public.

By order of the Director General of Telegraphs.

Merkuloff In Bad Way, Dalta Hears

(Dalta News Agency)

Harbin, February 25.—In consequence of the loss of Habarovsk, Merkuloff's position is becoming more critical than ever. The members of his People's Assembly in a series of closed sessions have decided firmly to oppose any attempt on Merkuloff's part to form a council of administrators without the knowledge of the Assembly. Efremoff, Merkuloff's candidate for the "premiership" has been rejected.

Perplexity is reigning in the Merkuloff circles. Their government life is utterly dependent upon the Japanese, who, they suppose, will not let the rule of the Far Eastern Republic extend to Vladivostok.

U. S. And Germany May Sign Treaty

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—To The China Press)

Berlin, February 26.—Negotiations now are on between Germany and America toward a commercial treaty. Both sides are desirous of a speedy settlement but the case is so complicated that long delay now seems certain since it involves the Versailles treaty and its various aftermaths together with the question of currency and exchange.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

February 27, 1922

Spot and forward bar silver were unchanged in London on Saturday. The New York price was also unchanged, and the London-New York cross rate improved to 442.

The only changes in the official quotations here today were a rise in the Gold Dollar rate to 70 and in the Franc rate to 780.

The market opened on the easy side and grew weak during the day. In the morning, business in Sterling was done at 3-2 for February, 3-1⅜ for March and 3-1⅝ for April.

Gold Dollars were done at 70 for February, 69⅝ for March and 69¼ for April.

In the afternoon, however, the market became very weak indeed, and closed with no sellers of Sterling at better than 3-1½ for February, 3-1⅝ for March and 3-1¼ for April.

The best sellers of Gold Dollars at the close were offering 69½ for February, 69 for March and 68¾ for April. Even at these rates banks were not anxious sellers, and there were good buyers at a fraction above these quotations.

There was nothing doing in the London or New York silver markets on Saturday, but both are reported to be weak.

IODISED THROAT TABLETS Allay all irritation

THE General Public is hereby notified that supplies of "IXL" IODISED THROAT TABLETS, the remarkable new throat remedy that is now being so largely and successfully prescribed by physicians in Great Britain, are now being made available for residents in China.

Representing the latest advance in scientific throat medication, these tablets, by reason of their Iodine content, are indubitably superior to any other pastilles or tablets that have yet been evolved by scientific research.

Their use is positively indicated in all cases of Sore and Ulcerated Throat, Hoarseness, Quinsy, Throat Catarrh, Tonsilitis, Laryngitis, etc.

As a highly efficient throat disinfectant when epidemics are rife, IODISED THROAT TABLETS indoubtedly excel any other preparation yet put upon the market.

No malignant Diptheria, Influenza, or other germ can find lodgement on a membranous surface that has been subjected to the peculiar antiseptic influences of these tablets.

Pleasant to the palate, and allaying all irritation, each tablet, as it slowly dissolves in the mouth, releases, in harmonious combination with other fine quality medicaments, a specific quantity of the pure Tincture of Iodine, to soothe, heal, and sterilize the inflamed area.

WARNING:—All cartons of the genuine and original IODISED THROAT TABLETS bear the "IXL" trade-mark, and each tablet is embossed with the letter "A." Reject feeble substitutes.

All first-class chemists supply "IXL" IODISED THROAT TABLETS.

Minister Schurman Speaks Out

BY JOSEF W. HALL

MAKING, as his apology, the statement that the remarkable benefits accruing to China from the Washington Conference had been greatly underportrayed in the public press the American Minister to China Jacob Gould Schurman, seized the occasion of the Washington's Birthday Dinner of the American Association of Peking to speak out on the subject. His address is the more noteworthy in view of the reputation for "having nothing to say" which Dr. Schurman has established with the newspapermen.

That the Washington Conference may well mark the opening of an annis mirabilis in diplomacy, that it may introduce the "Conference Era" or "Harding Method of Getting-Together" which is destined to replace the long era of bluff and force in international relations, that its success in enabling those who got together to get somewhere at the same time was owing in common to the guiding hand of the President who snatched brilliant victory from defeat, the perfect team-work of Messrs Balfour and Hughes, the liberal influence which prevailed among the Japanese delegates and the courage and tact of the able Chinese delegates, were the predictates from which Dr. Schurman went on to describe what appear to him as China's tremendous gains from the Conference. That such favorable results for China could never have materialised had it not been for the sympathetic and idealistic atmosphere of the city and country in which the assembly was held was emphasised by the Minister.

While exulting over China's successes, Minister Schurman did not hesitate to point out with table-thumping language the impossibility of her benefiting by them or going on to fufrther victories without a drastic reformation of the present condition of fortuitous government by the grace of ephemeral military chieftains. This part of his speech received marked applause.

Dr. Schurman's address is an echo of the arguments of Conference treaty ratificationists which are now resounding in Congress at Washington. It is manifest of a State Department and an Administration which takes itself very seriously and is very earnest in its determination that the decisions of the Conference be carried out to the letter and in the spirit in which the American people are accepting them. The auditor to Dr. Schurman's eloquence in the dining-room of the Peking Hotel could sense the "atmosphere" which impelled the assembled delegates of the nations at Washington toward something definite and something idealistic.

To the cynic, and to the pragmatist, this all sounds very unsophisticated. The exuberance of faith of the American people in ideals must appear to these people as the excessive joy of a child who is the next moment in tears. But that fervor, and the single-minded determination which accompanies it, is the one great remaining factor in which we may place hope for the preservation—not to say progress—of our civilisation.

RUSHING THE SEASONS

It's winter, but the time is near for spring and summer to appear; and quickly these will go and then autumn and winter come again.

The seasons pass and so do we—as surely and as rapidly. Today we're young and full of fun—tomorrow, old and nearly done.

In spite of this, though, strange to say, we often wish the time away. When winter's here we long for spring, and getting that, some other thing.

Unconsciously we all are bound to ask the year to hurry round, forgetting as the months go past, that we are riding just as fast.

Astride the passing years we race, without an hour to retrace; yet often would we fly instead and reach a season far ahead.

A Negro named Sam had worked for his master for five years. His friend Ben said to him one day:

"Now, Sam, you have worked up there and made your employer rich. You ought to ask for more money. You just tell him: 'Look here, guv'nor, you pay me more, or else.'"

Sam tried his friend's advice while sweeping the next morning. He began, "Say guv'nor, you'll have to gib me mo' money fo' dis job."

"Well, Sam, I'll see about it," was the reply.

"See about nothin'. You pay mo' or else."

"Pay more or else? Else what?" The employer's eyes flashed, and his tone was sharp.

Sam's eyes blinked as he detected his master's anger, and in a soft voice he replied, "Else I wuck for de same money."

New French Law Permits Exporting Works Of Art

Paris, Jan. 28.—Of interest to American collectors and dealers is the new French law on the exportation of works of art which replaces the 1920 law, much criticised, forbidding such exportation.

As a result of the 1920 law art auctions in Paris became deserted by American dealers, many of whom moved their offices to Brussels and London, and Paris lost its reputation as center of the art-auction world, held since the Second Empire. The new law is calculated to remedy this state of affairs.

In substance the new legislation is as follows:

Art. 30: The law of August 31, 1920, forbidding the exportation abroad of objects of art is hereby abrogated.

Art. 31: Excluded from the exoneration provided in Article 72 of the law of June 25, 1920, and subject therefore to the tax of 10 percent edicted by Articles 59 and 63 of that law, affairs applying to the sales by antiquaries on their own account of curiosities, antiquities, old books furniture and objects of collection, also sales of paintings, pastels, designs, original sculpture, engravings and old stamps.

Will continue to benefit from exoneration: collections of natural history, paintings, aquarelles, designs, pastels, original sculpture and engravings by artists living or dead has than twenty years.

Art. 37. In case of public sale of curiosities, antiquities, paintings, etc., 1 percent on the value will be levied to the profit of the fund for historical monuments.

Art. 38: The State may exercise pre-emption on all art sales.

The law, therefore, re-establishes the liberty of exportation of objects of art and suppresses the 13, 20 and 25 percent taxes under the old law.

On the other hand, the tax of 10 percent on business transactions which hitherto was not applied to art sales now is applied to them.

Thus paintings, sculpture, engravings and other works of art which Americans have been unable to purchase and bring home with them are now accorded freedom of exportation, but the French Government reserves to itself the right to buy any object exposed for sale if it so desires. Thus the French museums are protected.

The new law marks the triumph of eighteen months' endeavor by Edouard Jonas, president of the Syndicate of Curiosities and Fine Arts, powerfully aided by Duveen Brothers, Jacques Seligman and other large American dealers.

Jugo-Slavia Now Land Of Plenty

(China Press Service)

Agram, Feb. 5.—Jugo-Slavia is exporting food stuffs again. She is sending out every day enough hogs to provide America with ham and bacon for a week. Of the three great household staples, butter, cheese and eggs, she is also exporting immense quantities. Her abundance of food may be judged by the fact that the current price of butter is 17 cents a pound, of cheese 13 cents a pound, and of eggs 10 cents a dozen.

Bereft of horses and livestock during the war, the Serbians now are actually exporting animals by the thousands. They recently sold 20,000 horses to the Greeks. The countryside is swarming with sheep and goats, for which it is difficult to find a market. But pigs are the prize product of the kingdom. Every farmstead has hundreds of them. A young suckling can be purchased here for the price of a rabbit in the United States.

All through the war Serbia had to lean on other countries for its staff-of-life, bread. But today her stocks of wheat are so great that she could return her wartime favors by feeding other countries. Her last crops have been among her greatest. A pound loaf of bread in any part of the kingdom costs three cents. The coarse black bread that during the war-trying years held the nation together, is now only a memory. White bread and cake are the daily ration even of the poorest.

The little Slav state has made a truly remarkable recovery from the war. Everywhere one sees great abundance in all the necessaries of life, happiness and health among the people, and a definite effort at reconstructing the country.

The country's marvellous rehabilitation may be set down as due principally to the industry, common sense and determination of her thrifty men and women; secondly, to the absence of Bolshevism; thirdly, to the immense moral impetus given the population by America and other generous neighbors in the days when the country was destitute and tottering.

Peking And Canton Governments May Have Rival Soon

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Feb. 26.—An urgent telegram has been addressed to the Cabinet by General Chang Wen-shen, Tuchun of Anhui, saying that propaganda pamphlets, urging the formation of a third Government are being largely distributed in the districts of Anking, Wuhu and Pengpu, and hoping that the Central Government will enforce a strict control over the movement above mentioned.

Hankow, Feb. 25.—General Wu Pei-fu has communicated an urgent telegram to General Hsiao Yao-nan, Tuchun of Hupeh, stating that the attitude of the Fengtien faction is so firm that there is necessity for the seven provinces to act in co-operation and to resort to final measures.

Accordingly General Hsiao this morning called a military council and discussed military affairs with closed doors. It is also reported that General Hsiao has despatched one of his adjutants to Loyang to deliver to General Wu Pei-fu military funds, amounting to $400,000.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Feb. 24.—General Wang Chen-ping arrived here yesterday from Mukden and left this morning for Paotingfu. General Wang had an interview with the President this morning and reported upon the results of his last visit to Mukden.

It appears that General Wang, on this occasion, was not received by General Chang Tso-lin personally but saw and discussed the political situation with General Sun Lieh-chun. No details have transpired regarding the discussions. General Meng En-yuan, who recently went to Mukden, is now on his way back to Peking.

It is reported that a considerable consignment of arms and ammunition was sent from Peking to Paotingfu this morning. This was mainly a portion of the supplies captured from the Anfuites in 1920, and it had since been stored in the Ministry of War.

Face On Barroom Floor, U. S. Style

Louisville, Ky. (by mail) Jan. 23. —"The face on the barroom floor should be a skull, with crossbones under it, these days," declares George H. Blincos, federal prohibition agent.

"Death lurks in white corn liquor," he says. "It all contains fusel oil, one of the most deadly poisons. First-run moonshine is 'rank poison' yet the moonshiner who makes the stuff—'first shots' it is called by the legitimate distiller, doesnt trouble himself to distil it again, but sells it as it is for drinking purposes."

Double distillation and aging in charred barrels for at least four years is necessary to remove the fusel oil, Mr. Blincos says.

"No moonshine I have ever seen in my experience as a prohibition enforcement officer has been aged. The bootleggers' motto seems to be 'full speed ahead' and never safety first."

Trotsky Reviews Moscow Troops

(China Press Service)

Moscow, Feb. 26. — Russia celebrated the fourth universary of the creation of the Red army today when Trotsky reviewed the Moscow garrison. It was probably the greatest review since the Imperial infantry. Lancers, cossacks, gunners, engineers, and motor corps, tanks, and airplanes passed in a two hours march. The troops seemed in good condition and well uniformed.

Quincy Todd On "Hard Times" -:- By Roy K. Moulton

"I see by some of the newspapers," says Elias Q. Higginbotham, "that we are having very hard times, indeed."

"Sure," says Quincy Todd, laying down his hand between deals and fixing a baleful eye upon Elias Q. Higginbotham. "If you get enough people to squawking about it, you have hard times any time. But, we are sure having hard times now. I made more money the past year than I made any two years before."

"Maybe you was a little more careful with your dealing," says Elias Q. Higginbotham.

"Not at all," says Quincy. "I clean up more dough the past twelve months and am making more right now than I ever make, but if it is going to make you any happier, and also a lot of other squawkers, who haul off and yell bloody murder every time the Chinese kopek or whatever it is depreciates a cent a bushel, I am willing to admit, for sake of argument, that we are having hard times, but here is something else—the guy to groan the loudest about hard times is the one that can't make better'n coffee and cakes when times is at their best. Does that go over your head?

"I know some birds that would yelp about hard times if you could drive up to the mint with a moving van and load it up and drive off and store it in your cellar and go back after another load every day. Some guys enjoy hard times, just the same as others enjoy poor health. There are some guys, if you want to make 'em feel bad and insult 'em, all you have got to do is to tell 'em they're looking fine and healthy. If you tell some birds they are looking prosperous they take it as a mortal offense. They ain't happy unless they are unhappy and makin' everybody else unhappy.

"How any bird in this country puts up a squawk about hard times is away beyond me. They ort to live in some of them U-rope-ean countries. But I know a lot of calamity howlers who would be happy under those conditions because they would consider it a personal vindication and would holler, 'I told you so.'

"Say, we don't know any more about hard times in this country than John D. Rockefeller, Jr., knows about turning his cuffs or pressing his own pants. If they cut us down from five automobiles to four, or give us roast beef six times a week instead of seven, we are dumbfounded, dodgested and dingswizzled. If we gotta take our pie without ice cream on it once a week, we know we are on the straight road to the poor house. What's the cause of these here hard times of yours, anyhow?"

"Unemployment," says Elias Q. Higginbotham.

"Maybe some," says Quincy, "but there are too many people making a profession of unemployment in this country. Have you tried to get anybody to do anything around the house for you lately? I telephone an electrician the other day to get a light fixed. He said he was so short of help he couldn't promise anything before three weeks from the next Thursday. I been nearly two months tryin' to find somebody to put a patch on the tin roof over our kitchen where the water leaks down into the pancakes.

"One of the attractive things about the profession of unemployment is that there ain't no work connected with it. There are a lot of birds that, if they could work without doing anything, they would give unemployment the gate in a minute.

"There is three hundred and twenty-seven reasons for hard times. The principal reason is everybody talkin' about hard times. Like a hot day in the Summer. You wouldn't notice the heat at all if the first ten yaps you meet would keep their months shut about it.

"There is too many people in this country spending so much time yelling about hard times that they haven't got time to go out after new business.

"The cause of hard times, so-called, is extravagance. Every guy with a goulash income has been trying to satisfy a pate de foi gras and ruffed grouse appetite. Which I can explain as following, to wit:

"When I am a very young sap back home, it is considered very stylish for to have a horse and carriage in the family. My pap, he gets one of these rigs, with a two seated buggy and we are right in the social set and as swagger as the next one. The whole outfit costs about three hundred dollars and is quite an outfit, at that. The carriage is all covered with nice shiny paint and if a speck of mud gets on the harness my father throws a large eloquent fit. We are so careful of this three hundred dollars investment that we do not take it out at all except on Sunday afternoon and never then when there is a cloud in the sky and it looks as though it may rain during the following month. We are as careful of that rig as we are of an oil painting of a rich uncle. We lay this rig up in mothballs and cotton in the Autumn and don't take it out again until the next Spring.

"Now, a bird who is making $30 a week has got to have an automobile. If somebody dies and leaves him an inheritance the size of the car squares exactly with the size of the inheritance. He takes a four-thousand-dollar automobile out and tears up the road with it, like it was a gang-plow. The first thing he has to do is to get it covered with mud and he don't begin to get happy until he has knocked off a couple of fenders, smashed his radiator and blowed up three or four tires. When he wants to have a particularly good time he dodges in and out among "L" pillars, shaving off both running boards and all the outerworks of his machine. If he gets home without having a busted axle or a smashed headlight it has been a bum trip.

"He lets his four-thousand-dollar investment stand out in the rain and snow and ice just to let folks know that he is very prosperous and does not care nothing for expense. An automobile more or less ain't no more of an event in his life than a new necktie. He lets the engine take care of itself and gives it a dose of oil when it begins to squeak so loud it annoys the neighbors. No hill too steep, no sand too deep, is his motto. He takes six of his friends out for a ride and stops at a road-house and pays $46 for a round of lettuce salads with Russian dressing and, being the host, he cannot think of letting anybody else reach down in the jeans.

"Do you ask me the cause of hard times with people ridin' in limousines that ought to be steering a wheelbarrow, with women paying more for a corset-cover than their grandmothers paid for five evening gowns?

"Baldy Peters, who is just as loose as a fruit-jar top, gets his wife a velvet down that reaches almost down to her knees and pays more for it than the ones she used to buy that dragged on the ground. In two weeks she wants another.

"'Wear that one I buy you the other day,' he squawks.

"'Oh, that's old now. Everybody has seen it,' she said."

"But the times is hard," says Elias Q. Higginbotham, "and the money is very seldom."

"Sure," says Quincy. "Some people have always got hard times and find it hard to get money. If you have got something to sell, my boy, something that is worth while, you can sell it in hard times or good.

"And, if you ain't got nothing, you can't even give it away—and that goes in good times as well as bad."

Woman's Club Members Inspect Art Collections

Some members of the Literary Department of the American Woman's Club were privileged, through the courtesy of the British Women's Association, to hear Dr. Osvald Siren speak at the Country Club on Monday last week on "Principles of Representation in Chinese and European Art." The study which this department has been making of Chinese art furnished a background of appreciation for the illuminating comparison which Professor Siren made between the art forms of the East and West and lent special interest to the priceless collection of Chinese paintings loaned for the occasion by Mr. Strehlneek and Dr. Cox.

DANCE NETS $556

On Tuesday last the Club enjoyed a delightful general meeting at which the Social Department announced through its chairman, Mrs. V. G. Lyman, that the Valentine Tea Dance had netted $556 for the Permanent Equipment Fund. The Committee on the Constitution was announced as Mrs. H. A. Wilbur, chairman, Mrs. R. W. Squires and Mrs. P. H. Dunbar.

The program for the meeting was provided by the Mothers' Department, whose Chairman, Mrs. Van Buskirk, introduced the speaker of the day, Dr. Vivia B. Appleton, one of the staff physicians of the Council on Health Education, heading the department of child hygiene. Dr. Appleton's description of the Labrador depicted a land bare and stripped of material comfort and beauty, yet withal a country which had produced a sturdy people, admirable even in their limitations. What help along the the lines of medicine, nutrition, and child hygiene Dr. Appleton was able to bring to this bleak stretch of coast was described with a wit and pathos which brightened what might otherwise have been a rather sombre story just as the Northern Lights play over the Labrador itself.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT

Membership in the Literary Department of the Club opens many doors to private art collections which would otherwise be closed, and those who visited the collection of Mr. E. A. Strehlneek on Saturday afternoon felt that they had enjoyed a signal privilege, not only in viewing the invaluable examples of Chinese art but also in having its animating spirit so clearly and sympathetically interpreted by Mr. Strehlneek.

The conception of art as a liberating and ennobling influence was most forcibly conveyed by the owner's interpretation of his art treasures. An enumeration of the multiplicity of its beauties would read like a catalog; an adequate report of Mr. Strehlneek's principles of art, which embrace the philosophy of living, would require a monograph. Those in attendance felt they had been on a genuine pilgrimage to a shrine of art and that its collector's main object was to put into words the love of truth and unity with the underlying motive of existence which the artist expressed through his handicraft.

The cabinets filled with exquisite examples of ceramics, the rare bronzes, the lovely marbles, wonderful jades, and masterpieces of painting were described, not from the angle of the connoisseur gloating over the antiquity and monetary value of his possessions, but rather from the standpoint of the worshipper of art seeking to share with others its inspiration.

THIS WEEK'S MEETINGS

The meetings of the Club scheduled for this week are the Mothers' Department at the Carlton Cafe Wednesday morning at ten, when Mrs. Houghton's paper on "Discipline" will be read by Mrs. Fred Sites, and the Literary Department's meeting on Friday at 4:30 at the Royal Asiatic Society's Rooms, when Dr. Frank Rawlinson will speak on "The Original Religion of China." Members and friends are cordially invited to both these meetings.

"Religion of China" suggests off hand to most of us Confucianism, though we remember when reminded that this is really only a philosophy of morals, and that Confucius himself assumed certain religious concepts such as spirits and a supreme being. To formulate the original religion of China, since no religious system has been preserved in writing—if indeed it was ever definitely formulated—is an extremely difficult undertaking. Dr. Rawlinson has made an extended study of the references to religion contained in Chinese writings on philosophy, history and poetry and from this internal evidence he has constructed the expression of early Chinese religious principles. It is hard to overestimate the importance of this study and Shanghai thinkers will wish to hear this unique presentation.

TO SPEAK ON BIRDS

Turning over the leaves of the calendar to March 7 the next general meeting of the Club, on that date at 4 at the Carlton Cafe, when a lecture on "Birds" will be given by Mr. Andrew Allison, who comes from the James Sprunt Academy at Kiangyin to give this talk to the Club.

On March 9 at 4:30 at Mrs. Bardarson's apartment in the Astor, members of the Music Department are asked to meet for the election of officers. At 5 o'clock a program on Modern Composers will be presented, to which all are invited.

Peking Unable To Make First Loan Payment

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, February 22.—The Chinese Government has been unable to make the first payment upon the principle of the $14,000,000 Treasury Note Loan that was due on Monday last, according to reports from Chinese sources. The payment has therefore been postponed, and the reason given for the inability of the Government to pay being that certain salt remittances from the provinces have been "delayed" through being retained by the military commanders.

Sir Reginald Gamble is reported to have brought this fact to the attention of the Ministry of Finance. Some $170,000 is required for the first payment.

The Chinese Press reports that "fearing that this would effect the credit of the Government, Minister Chang Hu yesterday called a meeting of finance experts to discuss remedial measures. The decisions of this meeting were not available."

The brokers reports on these notes, however, show that they have risen one point. On February 21, they were quoted at $70. Today, they are quoted at $71.

Lloyd George Tries To Delay Election

BY NORMAN BAXTER
(Trans-Pacific News Service Exclusive To The China Press)

London, Feb. 26.—The Coalition Government is now forced into the position of battling for its existence. Immediately after the return of Premier Lloyd George from his conference with Poincare, together with other coalition leaders he began a nation-wide campaign to preclude a general election, featuring the Irish settlement, British policies regarding the Genoa conference and the results of the Limitation of Armaments Conference in Washington.

Two reasons that are speeding up Lloyd George's efforts are the recent Labor victores at the bye elections that wrested two reputed coalition strongholds out of his grasp, and the growing tendency of the conservative wing to get out of hand. The elections showed a distinct trend toward effecting an alliance between Asquith and the Laborites and Liberals.

The Coalition fears that were the election to take place, it would result in a split of several ways and would be complicated by numerous small alliances like the blocs in the American Congress. Hence this whirlwind campaign now on which Lloyd George is pinning his political hopes.

(Chung Mei News Agency)

Peking, February 22.—It is reported that there is no truth in the report carried yesterday in the Chinese and foreign press that the Aeronautical Department is in the process of concluding a £500,900 loan with the Vickers Company for the establishment of an air-line from Peking to Lanchow.

Labor Troubles Loom Again In British Shipyards

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 26.—A national crisis has arisen in the engineering industry.

Employers have given notice of a lock-out on March 11, in connection with the dispute over the freedom of the management in regard to overtime.

In this connection a ballot of the men resulted in the rejection of the recommendation of the Executive in favor of a memorandum, laying down that Trade Unions should not interfere with the right of employers to exercise managerial functions in their establishments.

Half a million men are affected, but the employers and Union members will confer on March 7 with a view to averting trouble.

Meanwhile, it is understood that a ballot of ship-building workers on the employers' proposal to remove the bonus of £1-6-6 a week, in two instalments beginning on March 15, has resulted in the majority being in favor of its rejection, thus raising the possibility of a shipbuilding lock-out.

American Labor To Enter Politics

(China Press Service)

Washington, Feb. 26.—Samuel Gompers announced that Labor will enter the congressional elections through its nonpartisan campaign committees to elect congressmen favorable to unionism. He said that Labor will nominate a candidate wherever necessary.

Gompers declared that because of the muddling of the tax and tariff questions the Federation executive council had passed resolutions opposing the national women party's consitutional amendment removing all legal disabilities from women on the grounds that it would endanger legislation granting women and children special consideration.

Britain Selling Aeros Again, Says French Journal

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—To The China Press)

Paris, February 26.—Britain's quick recovery in the field of aviation is declared by a French aviation journal to be due entirely to the sales of airplanes and engines abroad, which the journal says are of enormous extent. Soviet Russia and Japan are the big buyers, the former having taken a large shipment of Havilands, while Japan has just closed a contract for sixty Napiers in addition to 2,500 of other makes of motors, together with a large number of planes.

Japan is sending a mission composed of high officers in her army to Europe to buy all kinds of aeroplanes aed materials for the construction of both planes and engines.

Obituary

ANNA SULLIVAN DAVIS

Anna Sullivan Davis, wife of Theodore G. Davis of Plainfield, New Jersey, died at Dr. Fearn's Sanatorium on Thursday evening, February 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis with their three children arrived in Shanghai Wednesday on the Silver State from Seattle. Mrs. Davis had been suffering from influenza and its results during practically the entire voyage. Her condition was so very serious when Woosung was reached that medical help was sent before the ship could come up the river. Reaching Shanghai she was immediately taken to the Sanatorium for operation but as general peritonitis had already set in she lingered only a few hours.

Mrs. Davis was born at Angelica, New York, thirty-nine years ago last May, the daughter of Abram W. and Delia Catlin Sullivan. Her education specialised in music, and she was graduated from the music department of Alfred University and later at the Thomas Normal Training School of Music, Detroit, Michigan.

She was married to Mr. Davis at Alfred, N. Y. September 11, 1906. They went to make their home at Plainfield, N. J. where, with the exception of two years, one spent at Freeville, N. Y. and one in Brooklyn, they have always lived until coming to Shanghai this month.

Mr. Davis, the Representative in the Orient of the White Automobile Co., New York at Cleveland, is a brother of A. C. Davis of 4 Darroch Road and a son of the late Rev. Dr. D. H. Davis and Mrs. D. H. Davis now of Plainfield, who for nearly fort years were missionaries for the Seventh Day Baptist Missionary Society, located at St. Catherine's Bridge, beyond West Gate. Dr. Davis was for a period acting as Examiner of Chinese Language for the S. M. C.

Mrs. Davis was possessed of rare musical talent, both as vocalist and pianist, her powers were highly cultivated, and her great willingness to give pleasure to her many friends endeared her to all who knew her.

Mrs. Davis leaves her mother, a sister and a brother in America, her husband and three children, Grace Elizabeth, Albert Winston and Barbara Rogers here in Shanghai.

The funeral service was held on Friday afternoon at Bubbling Well Chapel at three o'clock.

Girl, 17, Kills Her Betrayer In Court

(China Press Service)

Waco, Texas, February 26.—Miss Marcine Matthews, aged 17, shot and killed J. S. Crosslin in the crowded district court room here today. Crosslin recently was sentenced to nine years imprisonment on a charge of having attacked Miss Matthews.

Preliminaries for a new trial were under way and the girl was on the witness stand when she suddenly turned, drew a revolver and shot Crosslin three times.

"He disgraced me and ruined my health," she declared to the astounded courtroom, "but he never will ruin another girl."

She was immediately taken into custody, but public feeling already running high in her favor when the case was remanded for the new trial, is at such a pitch that it is doubtful whether a jury could be empanelled that would do otherwise than acquit her.

STORMS IN U.S.

(China Press Service)

Greenbay, Wis. Feb. 26.—The Fox River valley from Greenbay to Fondulac is under sheet ice as a result of three days of unprecedented blizzard sleet and rain. Property damage in the Appleton district alone amounts to two millions. Wires are in a mass of debris. No communications was had with Oshkosh three days.
